Charge d'Affaires
United States Embassy in Angola
Rua Houari Boumediene #32, Miramar,
Luanda, Angola

Dear Sir,

Accreditation of Dr. José Jorge Correia Mateus as Country Director of the U.S.-Africa Trade Commission in Angola

This letter serves to formally accredit Dr. José Jorge Correia Mateus, a resident of Luanda, Angola, as the Country Director of the U.S.-Africa Trade Commission in Angola. Dr. Mateus has extensive experience and expertise in international trade, economic development, business management, and unwavering commitment to fostering bilateral trade relations. His deep understanding of the Angolan market and his strong network of contacts within the business community is invaluable in promoting trade and investment between the United States and Angola.

The U.S.-Africa Trade Commission (www.usafricatrade.org), is a nonprofit, non-government organization that promotes trade, tourism and investment opportunities between United States and Africa stakeholders across the United States. We are committed to promoting mutually beneficial trade relations between the United States and African nations.

Dr. Mateus represents our organization in Angola, promoting mutual trade interests, and facilitating economic collaboration between the United States and Angola. We kindly request your recognition and support of Dr. Mateus.

Dr. Mateus can be reached at jcmateus@usafricatrade.org and on phone at +244 947917908 / +244 937247451. Please do not hesitate to contact our office for any additional information.

Sincerely,

Titus Olowokere
Executive Director / CEO
